

WE :) LIKE L.A.

THINGS TO DO

33 Fun Things to do This Week in L.A. [10-11-2021 to 10-15-2021]

OCTOBER 11, 2021 BY BRIAN CHAMPLIN AND CHRISTINA CHAMPLIN

The La Brea Tar Pits. Credit: Brian Champlin / We Like L.A.

There's always lots to do in Los Angeles, and per usual we're here with a bi-weekly (Monday and Thursday) rundown of the best of what's happening in the city and county.

This week, from Oct. 11-15, features Carved at Descanso Gardens, Screamfest, a witchy architecture tour, a free panel discussion at the La Brea Tar Pits the Cat Art Show, the San Gabriel Dumpling & Beer Fest, OC Japan Fair, Beware The Dark Realm, and more!

Wednesday

14. Witchy Architecture Tours -> For the second year in a row, actress Amber Benson (Tara Maclay on Buffy the Vampire Slayer) is teaming up with with Friends of Residential Treasures: LA (FORT:LA) to create a tour guide showcasing five fairy tale-inspired residences around the Los Angeles area. FORT:LA will also offer Grimm's tales passages read by actors to accompany guests as they drive through the Witches Houses 2 Trail. You can download the tour map on FORT:LA's website for free starting on Oct. 13. Read about last year's tours here.